ROBERTS TALKS ABOUT COLD on our gold and it is possible to influence and exploit it to a dangerous degree. Recent chronicles are not without illustrations. This process of concentration and its rapidity and intent present the problem of the situation. Wisdom cries aloud and will be heard sooner or later, and better will be heard sooner or later, and better continues will be needed to operate in its atmosphere. In the meanwhile, and I believe for a long time, the nation's prosperity rests on a steadfast foundation.

Official Calls Attention of the Public to Evils of Raising Credits Higher Than Real Business Warrants.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 .- Ellis H. Roberts, treasurer of the United States, who is attending the joint convention of the Bankers' association, which is being held on board a steamboat on the Potomac river tonight, delivered an address before the convention. He said in part:

the convention. He said in part:
Current financial discussion deals in much the larger part with national banknotes. They constitute less than one-sixth of our stock of money, $18,537,375 out of $2,708,693,593, and no legislation can change that ratio very materially. Gold, on the other hand, furnishes $1,257,733,949, or hard onto one-half of our stock, and it grew $12,509,000 last month. Let me be content to stand on the rock bottom of gold. Of $2,258,302,178 money in circulation, gold in coin and certificates is $1,014,530,078; banknotes are just less than $406,000,000. Again, look at the treasury holdings. The gold there is today the largest sum ever recorded, $553,000,000. Onr treasury holds three and nine-tenths times the amount of gold belonging to the Bank of England, which is $166,506,000; it is more than three and eight-tenths times that of the Imperial German bank, which is $170,371,000; very nearly three times that of the Austro-Hungary bank, which is $21,404,000; it lacks only $5,000,000 of being equal to that of both the Brinks of England and of France, which latter holds $494,506,000, and it exceeds the amount of Ruesia, Germany, Belgium and The Netherlands combined.

United States Has Much Gold. On the holding of the Bank of England rests the credit, public and private, of the British empire. With us, besides, the gold in the national treasury, the banks, national and others, own $12,403,571, and this is more than any central metitution holds, save those of France and Russia.

More vital yet is the growth of the official treasury of the several countries. In five years the Bank of France has sained $127,640,000 and the Austro-Hungarian $73,120,000. In the same period the Imperial German bank has lost $23,623,000, the Bank of England $2,250,000, and Russia $122,240,000. Good fortune has added to the gold in the treasury vaults of the United States from the close of August, 1938, to the first day of the current month, $393,650,325, or very near $30,000,000 a year on the average. On the holding of the Bank of England

Let us get a little to the bank values and to the pockets of the people. The gold coin and certificates in circulation September 1, 1888, was $505,155,165, which was 37 per cent of the total. By the first of the present month this factor had become $1,046,51,078, and $42 per cent of the whole. Here in the gold currency of the whole. Here in the gold currency of the land is a gain of $348,364,910 within five years. This is the strength of our circulating medium and the crown as well as the cornerstone of our financial system.

In the average.

In the gold coin and certificates in circulation which was 37 per cent of the steps taken to give effect to them, even making allowance for the difficulties of the situation, were lamentably inadequate, and the alluded to Mr. Webster and question which is the strength of our circulating medium and the crown as well as the cornerstone of our financial system.

Harmony in the republican ranks was the slogan of the hour at the joint meeting of the First and Second Ward Republican clubs held in Metz hall last evening. More voters than usual were present and were entertained with short but spirited "harmony" talks from the aspirants to public favor who came to greet them.

E. J. Cornish opened the ball, making an eloquent appeal for harmony, which drew forth vociferous and prolonged applause. At the conclusion of Mr. Cornish's address candidates were introduced by Chairman H. E. Ostrom asked the voters for their

GOSSIP OF THE POLITICIANS C. S. Montgemery Looks Into Law and Decides Two Places Are Vacant on Democratic Ticket.

Whether or not the names of Judge Doane and John O. Yeiser shall be placed on the democratic judicial ticket and the names of Judges Baxter and Estelle shall warmly discussed in democratic circles as was the silver question in 1896. Not only the law, but the facts in the case, and the law and facts in other cases, are being gone over and a sultry time is generally nust be no interference of any kind with predicted. On the law in the case C. S. Montgomery says:

H. C. Brome declared that the new primary rules would work a decided reform and would prevent the buying and selling of delegations at conventions. The antimachine people, he said, were especially interested in harmony this fall and of refraining from slate making, because the people were now to be allowed to choose their own candidates, precisely what the republicans of Douglas county their own candidates, precisely what the republicans of Douglas county are coming to their own again. > ST. PAUL, Sept. 25 .- A petition for an order allowing an appeal in the case of the State of Minnesota against the Northern Securities company was filed with Judge Lochren of the United States cirouit court for this district today.

The assignment of error filed with the petition in substance sets forth that the court erred in every finding in the decree which dismissed the complainant's bill of complaint. It is claimed that the court erred in holding that the agreement which resulted in the formation of the Northern Securities company with power to acquire a majority of the stock of the Great Northern and Northern Pacific rallways is lawful and that the Northern Securities company was formed for a .awful purpose.

It is further alleged that the court erred in holding that the Northern Securities company is merely an investing stocknamed and that it is without power to interfere in the management or control of those roads; that the court erred in not finding that the Northern Securities com pany was formed for the express purpose of gaining control of the majority of the stock of those two railroads and their management. It is further claimed that the court erred falling to decide that the Northern Securities company was organized with the intent of evading the laws of the state of Minnesota which prohibit such mergers as the Northern Securities company, and that the court erred in ordering that the state was not entitled to any relief in the action brought to dissolve the merger. The assignment of error closed with a brief potition asking for a reversal of judgment in the case,

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Sept. 25 .- President Roosevelt today made his first appearance this summer on the streets of Oyster Bay on a week day, except when passing to or from a train. The president spends no time in the executive offices in the village, all of his business being transacted at Saga-more Hill Today, accompanied by Mrs. Roosevelt the president took a long horseback ride As they passed through the village on their way to Sayville they were kept howing continually to their friends and acquaintances They were unaccompanied. No callers were received today at Saga-more Hill, and it is unlikely now that any more visitors will call upon the president during the remainder of his sojourn here. A Hurt Never Hurta.

PARROT CAUSE OF AN ARREST William Griffin and Mrs. Finnegan Both Claim the Same Bird.

Wanted, a parrot. No common, ordinary parrot will do. It must be one certain bird, and the one which is wanted can not be found. A short time ago William ing. There is now a dispute as to the terms of the agreement on which the bird was turned over. Mrs. Finnegan asserts fin states with just as much emphasis that the bird was only turned over to be cared for during a short period and was to be returned in good condition on the payment of certain charges for its keeping. Griffin has made several attempts to secure possession of the parrot, but so far has failed utterly in his designs. He first made overtures to Mrs. Finnegan with view to inducing her to accept payment for its keeping, and other expenses incurred, she to relinquish all claim to the feathered pet. Mrs. Finnegan demurred. She not only demurred, but finally refused. Griffin threatened and cajoled, but all to no purpose. After he found all plans failed he hied himself to the city prosecutor's office and swore out a warrant, charging the woman with larceny as ballee. As a result Mrs. Finnegan is now peeping through the bars in the city jail trying to see a way out. But the bird is bidden, and she is still set in her purpose of not disclosing its whereabouts.
